

Existing Emerging Policy Issues (EPIs) and other Issues of Concern (IOCs)

AGENDA

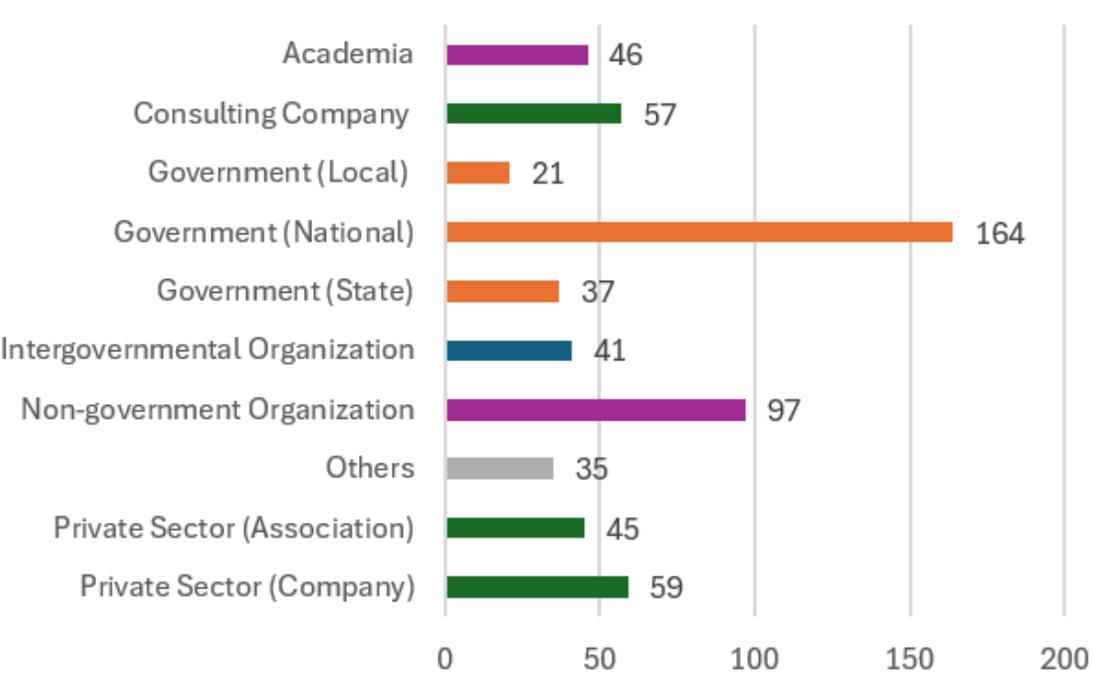

- 13:00 - Welcome and introduction: existing EPIs and IOCs and the IC-1: IOMC, GFC Secretariat
- 13:10 - Lead in paint: UNEP, WHO
- 13:15 - Chemicals in products: UNEP
- 13:20 - Nanotechnology and manufactured nanomaterials: UNITAR, OECD
- 13:25 - Hazardous substance within the life cycle of electrical and electronic products: UNIDO
- 13:30 - Endocrine-disrupting chemicals: OECD, UNEP, WHO
- 13:35 - Environmentally persistent pharmaceutical pollutants: UNEP, OECD
- 13:40 - Managing perfluorinated chemicals and the transition to safer alternatives: OECD, UNEP, WHO
- 13:50 - Highly hazardous pesticides: FAO, UNEP, WHO
- 14:00 - Discussion and next steps
- 14:30 - Close of webinar

English, Spanish, French, and Russian interpretation available!

Webinar registration statistics

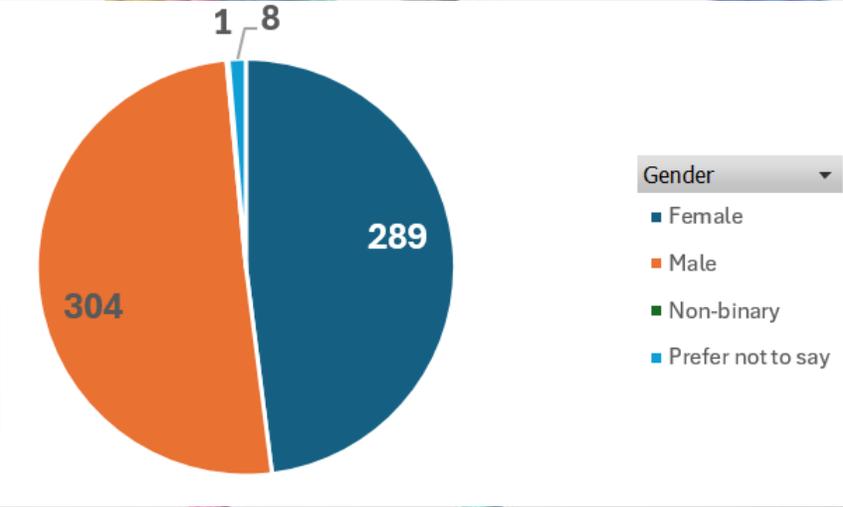

TOTAL registrations: 600

Distribution per sector

+104 countries

Gender distribution

*Data from Zoom registration report – Not an official UN list

Discussion and next steps

Raise your hand to use the microphone or write on the chat

Please:

- 1) Include Name and Organization
- 2) Indicate which EPI you are commenting on

Input by participants

Participants will have an opportunity to provide written contributions after the session. A summary of received feedback will be provided after the comment period closes.

Please indicate which EPI you are commenting on

COMPLETE THIS FORM

OR

EMAIL THE IOMC

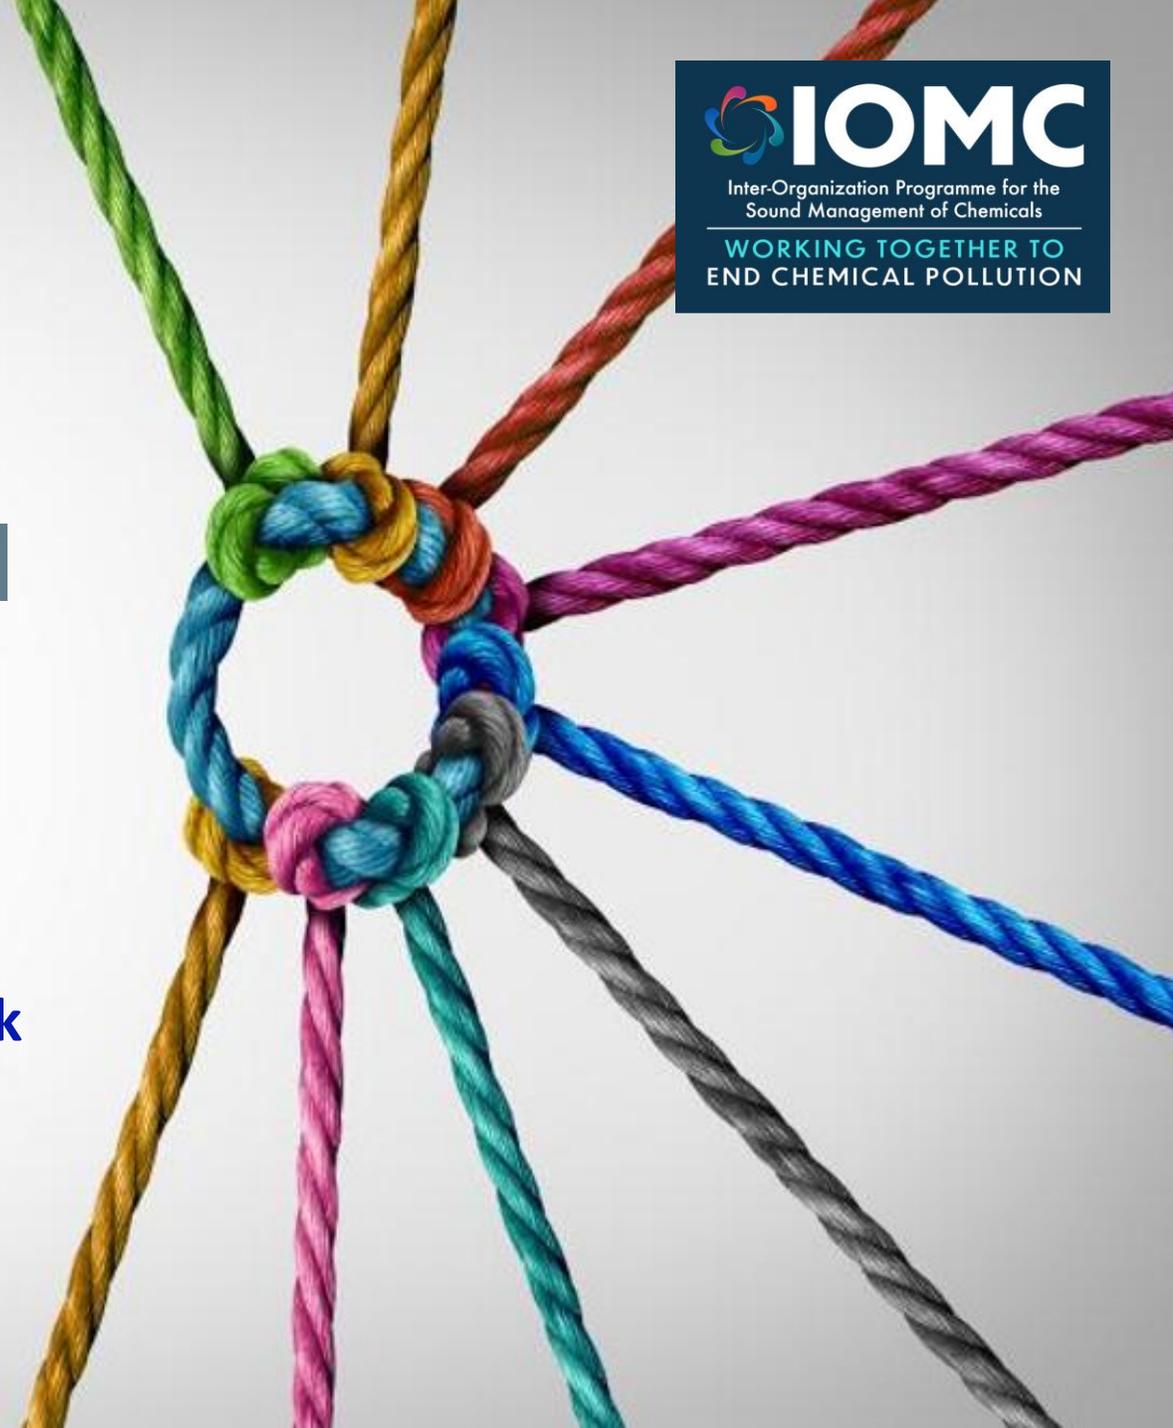

iomc@unitar.org

Preparation of the GFC First International Conference Report
on EPIs and other IOCs

Collecting feedback until 2 April 2026

<https://forms.cloud.microsoft/e/nV3ymgSERz>

“The IOMC vision is to shape a sustainable future through coordinated global action to achieve the sound lifecycle management of chemicals and waste for healthy lives and the environment.”

THANK YOU

Webinars website

For more information, recordings, presentations and other documents, please visit:

<https://iomcwebinars.org/>

Satisfaction survey:
Link will be shared by email

